

6 Reasons to Become A Member

1. Network with teachers and other education professionals. Attend state affiliate conferences, professional development events and networking opportunities, and join an NAEYC Interest Forum.
2. Help improve early childhood education. As a member you can participate in education, advocacy, and public awareness activities that help to increase understanding and support for high-quality early childhood education among policy makers and the public. Become a leading voice for early childhood education in your community.
3. Discounts on conferences. Get reduced rates for conferences and other professional development opportunities.
4. Discounts on books and publications. NAEYC is the premier publisher of research-based books and multimedia for early childhood educators who work with children of different ages and in a variety of settings. All members save 20% on all products in the NAEYC catalog and online store.
5. Collaboration. Develop tailored workshops for your program staff, family events and connect with other education agencies and resources.
6. Receive the latest research-based ideas to inspire and inform your work with young children. Get the award-winning magazine Teaching Young Children and stay abreast of important topics and theories in ECE with the peer-reviewed journal Young Children.

Join Colorado AEYC and make a difference in the lives of children and families in Colorado.
